Is your program experiencing challenges with faculty recruitment and retention? Are you looking to attract and retain high quality teachers and staff? In this session learn how New Haven Adult & Continuing Education Center has implemented a strengths-based leadership approach to maintain competitiveness with recruiting talent, engaging, and motivating new and current faculty instructors. Participants will leave with real ideas to immediately incorporate into every day practice.

Session # 1F

Student Advisory and a Culture of Collaboration

Presented by: Christy Martin, Joe Neff

Focus Topic: Program Development

Participants will walk away with the information of what has worked (or not) for New Milford Adult education as our program has evolved. Student's have gone from simply attending classes to reviewing program standards, planning and running events, implementing community service projects and becoming the voice of our student body.

Session # 1L

Conscious Conflict & Maintaining Community

Presented by: Adrianna Flax

Focus Topic: Program Development

As organizations, how we manage conflict directly impacts the health and psychological safety of our communities. This session introduces the concept of Conscious Conflict (CC), an approach for conflict resolution that provides a new model for addressing harms like microaggressions in a way that promotes trust and inclusion. An underlying premise of CC is that everyone is as capable of committing harm as we are of experiencing harm.

Session # 1T

Tricks & Tips to Marketing

Presented by: Bobbi Brown

Focus Topic: Program Development

Marketing a program, organization or product doesn't have to be complicated. Find out about free or reasonably priced easy tools you can use to boost awareness and gain followers. Audience members will gain tips on how to track marketing analytics, improve social media visibility, build cross agency marketing collaboration and create an interactive marketing campaign.

Session 2

10:30 a.m. – 11:30 p.m.

Session # 2A

Workplace Safety for ESL Students

Presented by: Marcy Reed

Focus Topic: ESL

Workplace rights and safety are often misunderstood by those who are new to this country or do not speak English well. Employers sometimes take advantage of undocumented status or of workers' lack of knowledge about their rights in the workplace. Employers of low wage workers are particularly guilty of wage and hour violations and our ESL students can be at risk. This session will provide ESL teachers with information and lessons to share with their students in order to educate them about employees' rights and the resources available if they require assistance with issues about rights and safety on the job.

Session # 2B

GED Connection: Through the Eyes of the Immigrant Experience

Presented by: Linda Blakesley, Rima Riedel

Focus Topic: High School Completion

Workshop facilitators will utilize an interdisciplinary approach emphasizing poetry, as well as interactive activities, incorporating key GED elements from Social Studies and Language Arts. Attendees will have the opportunity to connect with their own immigrant story while also uplifting and honoring the immigrant experiences of students, thus creating a safe space where students are seen and valued.

Session # 2C

Rebuilding Connection in a Post COVID World

Presented by: Pam Anderson, Lori Ouelette

Focus Topic: Collaboration/Partnerships

Many adult education programs have experienced a post-pandemic impact on student engagement and community partnerships. Please join us for a roundtable discussion of techniques we can use to: restore connections with students, maintain strong relationships with community partners and create a welcoming environment for all learners. This will be an opportunity to exchange ideas on what we can do to build a sense of community amongst the students we serve.

Session # 2D

Effective Classroom Implementation and Modalities for Diverse Learners

This session will allow teachers to set the stage for adult learning in remote, hybrid and classroom environments. Participants will learn skills to track students' progress, accelerate learning, maximize learning gains, and provide strategies for how to use resources in the classroom. This session will also cover how to orient students, use data to drive instruction, explore effective classroom strategies, and where to find additional student & teacher resources.

Session # 2E

Becoming CT State: Statewide Leverage, Local Legacy

Presented by: Ann Harrison, Thomas Coley

Focus Topic: Collaborations/Partnerships

Connecticut's 12 community colleges will augment the strength of their collective parts to become one CT State Community College this year. This means deepening K12 relationships, College Career Pathways, dual enrollment, and early college programs. This session will explore topics including implementing cooperative/work-based learning programs and opportunities, and expanding and deepening relationships between industry, job market, and areas of study to ensure that each student is provided the opportunity to pursue an affordable and quality education that aligns with their identities, lives, and skills required for livable-wage careers.

Session # 2F

NEAT Programs and Services: Assistive Technology Across the Lifespan

Presented by: Maggie Wurm

Focus Topic: Disabilities

People of all ages and abilities can benefit from assistive technology (AT) tools to support their access to the world. New England Assistive Technology (NEAT), an Oak Hill Center, aims to guide individuals, families, and support teams in identifying customized AT options and implementing them in meaningful ways. This session will provide an overview of the NEAT services that can help individuals attain impactful opportunities after transitioning from public schools, such as to support vocational tasks, independent living, and social engagement.

Session # 2L

Blended Learning with Aztec Software, Steck-Vaughn, and Paxen Publishing

Presented by: Mitch Rosin

Focus Topic: Program Development (Exhibitor Presentation - Aztec Software)

The global pandemic challenged adult education programs to effectively use technology to continue to provide both assessment and learning options for adult learners. Many programs quickly switched to a distance learning model while still utilizing print materials via a blended learning model. This workshop will highlight blended learning models, how technology can enhance the delivery of curriculum, and how English and Spanish curriculum from Aztec, Paxen, and Steck-Vaughn can provide the ideal solution for a blended learning model.

Session # 2T

Engaging Activities for the Multi-Level ESL Classroom

Presented by: Shelby Adams, Catherine Bosco

Focus Topic: ESL

This interactive workshop will teach participants how to create differentiated learning experiences that you can readily use in your classroom when working with multi-level ESL learners. These learning experiences will focus on communication skills including; listening, speaking, reading and writing.

Session # 3A

Enhanced CASAS and Burlington English: A WIOA-Focused Combination to Prepare Workers for Skilled Jobs

Presented by: Robert Breitland

Focus Topic: ESL (Exhibitor Presentation - Burlington English)

National workforce reports show that higher-order skills such as critical thinking and problem-solving are becoming more vital for all workers. To prepare students for the rigorous demands of the workplace, adult education providers need to make the most of their instructional resources and assessment tools. Join this session to hear how enhancements to CASAS and BurlingtonEnglish contribute to student success in IET/IELCE programs and in the workplace.

Session # 3B

ABE: The Stepping Stone to ALL High School Completion Options

Presented by: Amy Shea

Focus Topic: High School Completion

After registering and pretesting your new students are placed into your ABE-level classes. What do you do with them after they are placed? Do you just focus on basic skills? Do you give these new eager students options? This workshop will focus on what happens with our ABE students and the options they are given to move throughout the program. Keeping communication going and meeting with students regularly may be the key to their success.

Session # 3C

Integrated Resource Teams- Addressing Barriers to Success

Presented by: Pam LaRosa, Heather Pelletier

Focus Topic: Collaboration/Partnerships

Integrated Resource Teams can have a powerful impact in addressing the barriers facing many participants. These teams, made up of representatives from multiple partner agencies, come together to strategize on how to best mitigate barriers to success. This is a common-sense, can-do approach to coordinating partner services and maximizing the outcomes for those we serve.

Session # 3D

Mathematical Reasoning: It's All in the Numbers

Presented by: Debi Faucette

Focus Topic: High School Completion

An educator's classroom experience and the GEDTS research data tells us the same story: Mathematical Reasoning is the content area most challenging for students. We will address skills and strategies to tackle different ways to address items most difficult for students, as well as share what has been learned since the original research.

Session # 3E

2-1-1: A Connection to Community Resources

Presented by: Alana Kroeber
